

Hello my friend,

Did you hear that we have already started the activities?

Yes, this is the best news I have for you now, but for sure I will come back with others even better.

Are you curious already?

Of course, if you still want to get involved, or find out more about the activities, you can contact @Enache, Flori-Ramona (Ramona).

For sure, she will know more and help you!

March is approaching fast its end, and Stefanini Institute with the old partners, Rubik School started already a new set of online courses within the programme Life abilities for young people.

The initial desire was to start with one group of pupils under 14 years old for Public Speaking and one group between 14 and 18 years old for Financial Education.

All the participants are from disadvantaged communities from Romania and have free access to the 8 sessions which will be held until May. The good news is that the children were so enthusiastic about this idea that they got register so many, so we had to open another group for Public Speaking.

April is coming with some internal surprises, in collaboration with Stefanini Romania, a physical workshop, In Bucharest office about sustainability and green practices. For this you should have some more patience until we will announce the details, so keep it in mind!

Did you know?

Volunteering is acting for a cause that enlightens you! Volunteering is an unpaid activity which is represented by various benefits. Usually, the volunteering activities are done with other people with similar interests, so you can increase your connections and socialization. Also, depending on the field in which you volunteer, it will increase specific skills and knowledge. Continuous learning and physical and mental health are the main fields positively impacted by volunteering. On top of all this, the Romanian legislation recognize the volunteering in the field of study as work experience.
